As school was closed on Friday 2nd March (due to the adverse weather) these Golden Mentions will be presented on Friday 9th March.

Assembly theme this week

Our school value this half term and the theme for assemblies this half term is Forgiveness.

Matthew 6:13

And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

Book Week has gone really well (despite the weather). As you know, this year we have linked the up-coming Shakespeare Week with Book Week as they are so close together. The children have made book marks, 'Dropped Everything and Read' and completed the sponsored Read-a-thon. Every child in KS2 also took part in a Book Quiz on Tuesday.

The new date for the children to dress up as a Shakespearean Character will be Friday 16th March, which will also coincide with Shakespeare Week.

Read-a-thon

All the children who were in school on Thursday have completed the Read-a-thon with their class. It's still not too late to collect even one or two pounds to help us purchase exciting new things which our children will be able to use or read in the Library. Every penny makes a huge difference to us. It would be greatly appreciated if all sponsor money could be sent in by the end of this Half Term.

Your continued support is really appreciated.

K. Griffiths

School Photographs

As the proofs of some of the group photographs only arrived last week, a further collection has been arranged with Tempest. Please get any orders back to us by Friday 9th March.
